APPENDIX 2B - BENEFITS FOR PART-TIME TECHNICIANS

1. Annual Leave. A part-time permanent technician for whom there has been established in advance a regular tour of duty on one or more days during each administrative work week earns annual leave as follows:

a. An employee with less than 3 years of service earns one hour of annual leave for each 20 hours in a pay status.

b. A technician with three, but less than 15 years of service earns one hour of annual leave for each 13 hours in a pay status.

c. A Technician with 15 years or more of service earns one hour of annual leave for each 10 hours in a pay status.

2. Sick Leave. A part-time technician earns one hour of sick leave for each 20 hours in a pay status. Credit may not exceed four hours of sick leave for 80 hours in a pay status during any full bi-weekly pay period.

3. Military Leave. A permanent part-time technicians entitled to leave without loss of pay, time or performance or efficiency rating for each day, not in excess of 15 days in a fiscal year, in which the technician is on active duty or engaged in field or cost defense training under sections 502-505 of Title 32 USC as a Reserve of the armed forces or member of the National Guard. Non-work days falling within a period of absence on military training duty are charged against the 15 days of military leave allowed during the year but no non-work days occurring at the beginning or end of the period. EXAMPLE: A part-time technician normally scheduled to work 6 hours each Monday through Thursday would be entitled to the same 48 hours of pay for a normal 15 day AT tour (Sunday through Sunday) and would be charged with use of 12 of the 15 days military leave authorized under Title 5, USC.

4. Holidays. For a part-time technician, if a holiday falls on a day during his/her tour of duty, the technician is entitled to an appropriate portion of his/her biweekly basic work requirement for that day. A part-time employee is not entitled to an "in-lieu of" holiday if the holiday falls on a non-work day.

5. Federal Employees Health Benefits Program. A part-time employee is eligible to participate in the Federal Employee Health Benefits Program. The coverage for part-time and full-time employees is greater since a covered employee receives a prorated government contribution to health insurance premiums according to the number of hours in the tour of duty during the pay period.

6. Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program. A part-time employee is eligible for Federal Employees Group Life Insurance Program. The actual amount of insurance for which an employee is eligible is based on annual salary. The minimum amount of basic insurance is $10,000.

7. Retirement. Permanent part-time employees are covered under either the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) the same as full-time employees. Retirement benefits are computed on an individual basis in accordance with current regulations.
